

“Made by These Unworthy Hands”: The Armenian Silversmiths of Kayseri

Dr. Sylvie L. Merian
 Tuesday, November 13, 2018
 Armenian Diocese | Guild Hall
 630 2nd Avenue | New York |
 7:45 PM

Dr. Sylvie L. Merian received her PhD in Armenian Studies from Columbia University’s Department of Middle East Languages and Cultures, writing her dissertation on Armenian bookbinding. She has published and lectured on Armenian codicology, bookbinding, silverwork, and manuscript illumination, as well as on the history of the book. She is a contributing author to the catalogue for the exhibition, Armenia!, at the Metropolitan Museum of Art. She works at The Morgan Library & Museum as Reader Services Librarian.

In connection with the exhibition Armenia! at the METROPOLITAN MUSEUM OF ART, the Zohrab Information Center is thrilled to present talks by some of the contributors to the exhibition catalogue. Join us as Sylvie Merian details the beautiful work by Armenian silversmiths from Kayseri, some of which is on view at the Met! These talks are sure to enhance any visit to the Armenia! exhibition.

A RECEPTION WILL FOLLOW.