

The Cultural Committee of St. Thomas Armenian Church
Presents

What's in a Name? The Etymology of Armenian Surnames

A lecture by Writer & Editor C.K. Garabed on

Sunday, October 20, 2019 at 1:30 pm

St. Thomas Armenian Church • Ariyan Hall

174 Essex Dr. • Tenafly, NJ 07670

C.K. Garabed will discuss the origins of Armenian surnames and the detective work involved in researching name derivations with examples of some highly unusual surnames.

C.K. Garabed also recently released his free, online “Dictionary of Armenian Surnames.”

For 30 years, C.K. Garabed has been a columnist for the Armenian Weekly newspaper. He is the author of “Inch g’usis? A Dikranagerdtsi Vernacular Handbook.”

Visit him at: http://www.armeniapedia.org/wiki/C.K._Garabed

Light refreshments; free admission.

For more information please contact Talar Sarafian at 201-240-8541 or at Talar@Sarafian1.com or contact the church office at 201-567-5446