

St. John Armenian Church Music Guild

proudly presents

Charles Miller

In a Virtual Organ Recital of Bach, Handel, Mendelssohn, Yagmalian and Hagopian

Premiering on the St. John Armenian Church public Facebook page Friday, March 19, 2021 – 7:00pm

Charles Miller began his ministry of music at Cherry Hill Presbyterian Church in Dearborn, Michigan on January 1, 2020. A native of Traverse City, Michigan, Charles graduated from the Interlochen Arts Academy in Michigan. He received his Bachelor of Music degree in organ performance from the University of Michigan in the class of Robert Glasgow, and his master's degree in choral conducting from the University of Connecticut.

Charles has been in music ministry for 40 years as Organist, Minister of Music, Director of Music, and Choirmaster in many cathedrals and churches. His extensive music career has included Minister of Music and Organist at National City Christian Church in Washington D.C.; associate organist at Detroit's Cathedral Church of St. Paul; and many churches in New York, Connecticut, and Michigan.

Charles has been featured in solo recitals at the National Cathedral and the Kennedy Center in Washington, D.C., St. Thomas Church and the Brick Presbyterian Church in New York City, York Minster, England and St. Paul's Cathedral, London. He performed three times for the Spoleto Festival in South Carolina and his 1995 performance there was featured on NPR's Pipedreams.

In addition to his position at Cherry Hill, Charles is President and Owner of Phillip Truckenbrod Concert Artists, LLC, a concert booking and artist management agency for concert organists.

If you would like to support the work of the St. John Music Guild, send a donation to:

St. John Armenian Church
22001 Northwestern Highway, Southfield, Michigan 48075

Make checks payable to: St. John Music Guild