

AN INVITATION from the Holy Trinity Church ZOOM

BOOK CLUB

Mayrig by Henri Verneuil

Date / Time: Thursday evening,
April 21 at 7:00 pm

Facilitator: Elise Antreassian (translator)

The renowned French filmmaker Henri Verneuil (Ashod Malakian) takes us on a fittingly cinematic journey back to his childhood: the steamer to France, finding work, the search for a place to live, summer vacation on a budget, a traumatic French birthday party, illness, a Genocide commemoration: these are only some of the places Verneuil takes us. At every stop, he paints an affecting picture that in simple and sparing words speaks volumes about a boy and his family and the quintessential immigrant experience. It was a landscape of many colors, but in that extraordinary circle of mother (mayrig), father and two maternal aunts, it was, above all, the brilliant color of love tinged with the hues of Armenian joy and Armenian sorrow.
