PRESENTS

“Armenian Studies ZOOM Webinar”

Miraculous Images in the Armenian Church

Since his ordination to the priesthood in 1976, Father Garabed Kochakian has served as a spiritual leader within the Diocese of the Armenian Church in America. While he retired in 2015 from active pastoral ministry at St. Johns Armenian Orthodox Church of greater Detroit, Father Garabed has continued to follow his sacred duty through his research and studies on Armenian Sacred Art and Architecture.

As a specialist in Armenian Sacred Art and Theology, Father Garabed presently delivers lectures on Armenian Art, Illuminated manuscripts, and Armenian Ecclesiastical Architecture to various groups and parishes of the Diocese and at universities. In addition, he conducts Illuminated manuscript painting workshops for adults and children. As an Iconographer and Illuminated Manuscript painter, Father Garabed has painted Icons for seven of the parishes in the Eastern Diocese and continues to paint Icons in the Armenian tradition.

Join us as Father Garabed leads us through an interpretation of Miraculous Images in the Armenian Church. These sacred icons have produced miraculous results, reveling the presence and power of God; collectively in historic events of the Armenian people and as well in the personal experiences that have deepened one's faith.

Monday, December 12 , from 7:00pm – 8:00pm ET with Q & A
