The St. Elizabeth University Holocaust and Genocide Center Presents

A Night of Remembrance of the Armenian Genocide

Monday April 24th Dolan Auditorium,
Annunciation Center 6:30-8:30

An evening of food, music, poetry, and discussion will honor those lost in the Armenian Genocide. Starting in 1915, over one million Armenians were murdered. A collection of experts will share their views on the history of this tragedy, along with personal reflections, and analysis of contemporary events in Armenia.

The Symposium will include participants:

Susan Arpajian Jolley and Allan Arpajian, authors of *Out of My Great Sorrows: The Armenian Genocide and Artist Mary Zakarian

Dikran Kaligian, PhD, Managing Editor of the Armenian Review, adjunct professor of history, Worcester State University

Allison Weller, Copiague Public School District teacher and Vice President of Policy and Administration for the NY State Council for the Social Studies

Moderator Vartan Abdo-Founder and Director “Armenian Radio Hour”
