Reflections from our Youth

Four young adults – one from each of the four Churches – will share their reflections on what it means to inherit the sacred legacy of the sanctified Martyrs of the Armenian Genocide. They will share how our survival inspires strength and hope for our future.

DONATIONS EARMARKED FOR

In the midst of the ongoing Middle East conflict, Armenian day schools of all denominations in Lebanon and Syria are facing profound challenges in remaining open and operational. These schools depend largely on tuition to sustain their mission. Yet, today, many families are enduring severe financial hardship, with parents unable to work and struggling to meet even basic needs.

Education is more than instruction—it is stability and continuity. Ensuring that these schools remain open safeguards not only learning, but also a sense of normalcy for our Armenian youth.

The Armenian Churches of Greater Detroit Genocide Commemoration Committee has dedicated this year's charitable efforts to support the uninterrupted education of our Armenian children in Syria and Lebanon. Your contribution will make a meaningful difference in helping achieve this.

Please make your check payable to the Armenian Churches of Greater Detroit and return it in the enclosed self-addressed envelope. Donations can also be made online using the link: Bit.ly/4churches. The Armenian Churches of Greater Detroit is a 501 (c) (3) tax-exempt organization.
